

Vladislav I. Goldin

Merited Science Worker of the Russian Federation, Merited Higher School Worker of the Russian Federation, Honorary Worker of Higher Professional Education of the Russian Federation, Doctor of History, Professor.

In June 1980, Vladislav Goldin defended his Candidate of History dissertation at Leningrad State Pedagogical Institute.

In November 1993, he defended his Doctor of History dissertation at Moscow State Pedagogical University.

In 1995, Goldin was given the academic rank of professor.

Vladislav Goldin's key areas of research include:

– sociopolitical processes in Russia, and North Russia in particular, in the late 19th – 20th centuries;

– history and historiography of the Russian Civil War;

– history of Russian military émigrés/white Russian émigrés in the 20th century;

– history of exploration and development of northern territories of Europe in the 20th century: statehood, regions, sociopolitical processes, international relations.

Since May 2011, Vladislav Goldin has been holding the position of professor at the Department of Regional Studies, International Relations and Political Sciences, NArFU. In addition, he teaches master's degree courses within the specialty "European Studies: The Arctic Vector", conducts active research in the fields of history, international relations, and science studies. Goldin is the author of more than 500 scholarly publications, including 24 monographs (2 of which co-authored) in Russia, 7 in Northern and Western Europe and the USA.

Either under his leadership or with his participation, more than 20 Russian and international scientific projects have been implemented, supported by such organizations as the Russian Foundation for Basic Research, Russian Foundation for the Humanities, Russian Foundation for the Humanities in the North, Russian Foundation for Basic Research in the North, Barents Secretariat, and others.

Currently, Vladislav Goldin is involved in the following academic publishing projects:

1) monograph The History of the Northern Sea Route (2014–2019, co-author; to be published first in English in the Netherlands year 2020 and, subsequently, in Russia);

2) 3-volume fundamental project "Russian North in the Era of Great Upheavals. 1900–1920" (author; in 2018 the first volume of Goldin's monograph North Russia on the Way to the Civil War. 1900 – Summer 1918 was published);

3) 20-volume academic History of Russia by the Institute of Russian History of the Russian Academy of Sciences (in 2018 Goldin was appointed editor-in-chief of volume 12 titled Civil War in Russia. 1917–1922, has developed the concept of this publication and, together with a team of authors, has been working on its text).

Professor Goldin is a member of the Bureau of the RAS Council on the History of Social Reforms, Movements and Revolutions, expert of the Russian Foundation for Basic Research, president of the Russian Civil War Research Association, editor-in-chief of the journal Vestnik of Northern (Arctic) Federal University. Series “Humanitarian and Social Sciences”.

Vladislav Goldin is fond of hiking and kayaking, travels around the world and has so far been to more than 100 countries.